Conference Presentation

“Move the Herd”

by Monica Kubik, UAE Dubai

How can we, as horse-assisted facilitators, unite and create a movement to establish our work as common practice in human development?

Monica Kubik

Monica Kubik is a German expat living and working in Dubai since 2006.

In 2016 she did the first Train the Trainer for HorseDream at Gerhard's stable in Germany and later became a Licensed Partner and lifelong member of EAHAE.

In 2020 she additionally certified in Horse guided Empowerment by Christina Marz where she now also acts as mentor for new students.

Today, she works with a variety of clients, from corporate groups, to individuals with trauma related issues, women with cancer, and also started leading worldwide retreats in different locations.

Monica is passionate about sharing this beautiful work with as many people as possible for a world where humans and horses heal each other.
